

Report on Interclass Elocution Competition

The Counselling Cell and the Department of Library and Information Science, in collaboration with the NDLI Club, organized an Interclass Elocution Competition for the students of Swami Vivekanand Vidyaprasarak Mandal's College of Commerce on 10th September 2025.

Objective:

The competition was conducted with the objective of providing a platform for students to express their ideas confidently, improve their communication and public speaking skills, and encourage critical thinking on socially relevant issues.

A total of eight students participated in the competition, speaking on thought-provoking topics such as:

1. Is Social Media Making Us More Social?
2. From Degrees to Skills: Rethinking Education for the Future
3. Freedom of Expression: How Free Are We?

The participants impressed the audience and judges alike with their clarity, confidence, and insightful perspectives. Each speaker brought a unique interpretation, making the competition vibrant and engaging. The panel of judges for the event comprised Ms. Sonia Desai, Librarian of the College, and Ms. Rashmi Naik, Assistant Professor in Business Law. Their fair evaluation and valuable feedback added to the learning experience of the students.

After an intense and enriching round of elocution, the results were announced. Mr. Shaunak Tendulkar from F.Y. B.Com secured the first place, Ms. Pooja Shahi from F.Y. B.Com won the second place, while Ms. Kritika Jamuni from S.Y. B.Com stood third. The winners were congratulated for their commendable performances. At the same time, appreciation was extended to all eight participants for their sincere efforts, creativity, and confidence, which contributed immensely to the success of the event. The competition not only recognized talent but also encouraged students to continue honing their oratory skills.

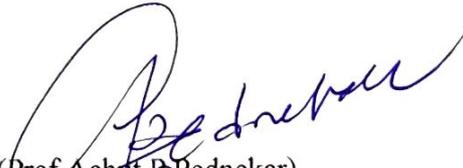

The Interclass Elocution Competition successfully provided students with a platform to develop and showcase their public speaking, critical thinking, and communication skills. It encouraged participants to articulate their thoughts clearly on relevant contemporary topics, boosting their confidence and self-expression. The session also fostered healthy competition, creativity, and peer learning, while highlighting the importance of staying informed and reflective about social issues. Overall, the event contributed to the holistic development of students and inspired them to continue improving their oratory abilities.
